

Parents Newsletter No. 2
Autumn Term 2007

Dear Parents/Guardians,

BIG Kids Day – FRIDAY 28TH
SEPTEMBER

We are supporting this year's Big Kids Day by having a "Mufti Day". We are charging 50p to wear clothes of your choice but please no combat clothes and no hair dye. Thank you.

We are also holding a film show from 5.30-7.00pm on the same day. £1 per ticket on sale from school office.

BOOK WEEK – 1ST – 5TH
OCTOBER

We are fortunate to have author Julia Jarman to speak to all the children on Friday, 5th.

WEDNESDAY, 3RD OCTOBER –
PARENTS' INFORMATION
EVENING 6.30PM ON READ WRITE
INC.

Come and find out about our new phonic scheme and see the resources. This is a really important meeting to keep you up-to-date on the way your children are being taught. All are welcome and we hope to see all families of children in Reception to Y4 represented.

PLEASE CAN I DRAW YOUR ATTENTION TO THE FOLLOWING:

Please do not bring expensive electronic games or mobile phones into school. The school cannot be held responsible for loss or damage to your child's property.

Please can we remind you that we have children in school who have severe allergic reactions to nuts in particular peanuts. Please try to avoid peanut bars and peanut butter sandwiches in lunch boxes.

SHOEBOXES – LAST DAY
WEDNESDAY, 17TH OCTOBER

It's that time of year again when we ask you to fill shoeboxes to send to eastern European countries. We have some shoeboxes available in school but we would ask that if possible you collect a shoebox from a local retailer. Please bring in your shoeboxes on or before the above date. Please see reverse for further details.

HARVEST SERVICE

We are holding our Harvest Assembly on Friday, 19th October. Please could you donate tins, packets of food, fruit or vegetables. Thank you.

Yours faithfully,

K.M. Hinshaw
Headteacher
